Copies of this Catalogue, giving prices realized, neatly executed in red ink, 50c. Cash with order. Acquaint yourself with the prevailing rates for coins, etc. Many collectors order them.

In the matter of Coin Collecting, there is no outlay of funds that brings equal satisfaction, to that expended for priced catalogues of current sales.

Coins and Medals are sold at so much per piece. Kindly make your bids accordingly. Do not bid by the lot. If a lot contains 10 pieces and you desire to offer $2.00 for it, make your bid 20c.

My terms for buying are 5 per cent.

Auction Sales are strictly for cash. Parties unknown to me must send a deposit covering at least 25 per cent. of their bids, otherwise they will not be accepted.

Collectors with experience have found that all catalogues are not alike.

My rating of the condition of Coins and Medals, and the statements made in my Catalogues as to their rarity, etc., are to be distinctly understood as based on my personal judgment, formed after an experience of more than twenty-five years as a dealer.

War or Rebellion Tokens.

Condition, mostly fine to uncirculated.

From My Catalogue of October 1902.

The Merchants' cards and others similar, so freely used during the War of the Rebellion and now commonly called "War Tokens" had their origin I believe in 1858, when an electrotype or leaden piece, copied after the "flying eagle"—the new small cent—first appeared. It was followed in 1859 by an issue of the Marshall House, Alexandria, Va.—where Ellsworth was shot two years later. It is by Lovett of Phila. and has the head of Liberty, which was used on his ? famous Confederate Cent.

Lovett's own card, dated 1860 has the same profile. The head is subsequently used on an undated card of the Magnolia Hotel, Phila. with the letters R(obert) L(ovett) beneath truncation. It may be interesting to collectors to learn the proportion of dates—in the collection then offered—showing that some are ante-bellum, while the greatest emission—over 5% of them—was in 1863, the third year of the war; 1860 (2) 1861 (10) 1862 (4) 1863 (198) 1864 (18) undated (66).
